Homecoming 1998

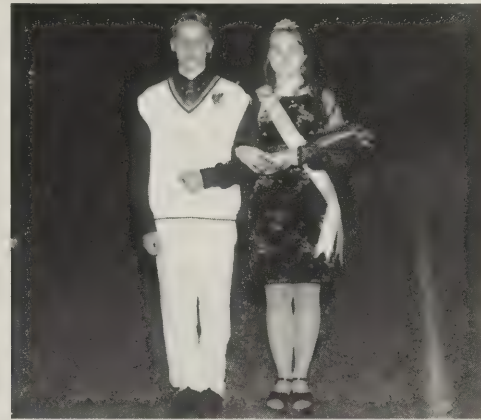

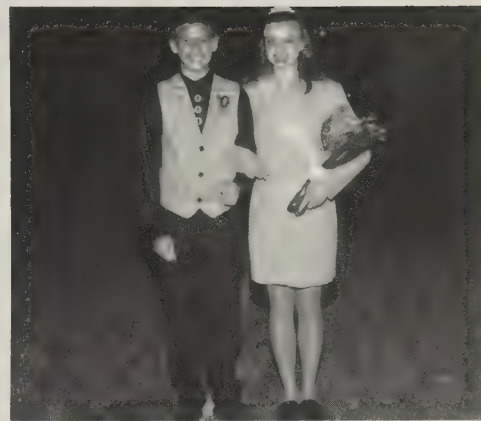

Homecoming 1998 was a splendid success in every way. We started it off with spirit week and ended with a pep rally, the hall decorations, the parade, the game and the dance. The juniors won the pep rally and the hall decorations. That night at the game the Mighty Spartans took on the Radford Bobcats and we showed them how mighty we were by winning a crucial victory 14-13. Even though homecoming has come and gone, the memories will linger.

1998 Dedication

Every year the senior members of the yearbook staff dedicate the Shield to one outstanding teacher who has helped us make it through high school. This year's recipient is Mr. John Howlett. Mr. Howlett is not an ordinary teacher. He smacks desks, yells at every student in the class, and makes learning fun. How can this be, you ask? Mr. Howlett makes the class exciting! Even though you have to take notes, and you still have to take tests, every other day is a blast. You laugh, tell jokes, and play games. Mr. Howlett has taught many students at Giles High School, and we think every one of you will agree with us when we say that he is an outstanding teacher. Thank you, Mr. Howlett, for helping us to get through school!

EXTREME ACTION

Below: Tarah Brown steals the ball and dribbles it out of the lane. Bottom right: Lori Douthat heads toward the basket for the lay-up.

Right: Michele Chidester dumps the ball in the lane to a fellow teammate for the layup.

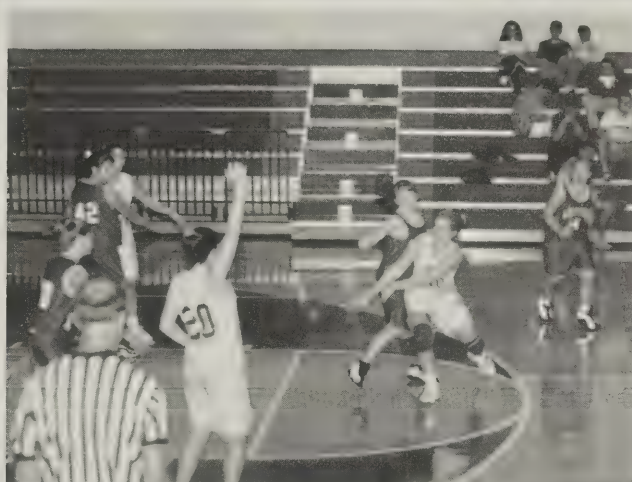

When the season started the girl's varsity team didn't know what to expect. With the loss of many key players last year, and a new coach, they had to start over and regroup. But what the Spartans lacked in experience, they made up for it in heart. The girls played every game as though it were their last. Even though they didn't win many games, these girls wouldn't have traded this season for anything.

CROSS COUNTRY GOES TO STATE!

"Running...is now a part of me...Now when people ask why I run, I just shrug my shoulders and tell them 'Because I love to.'" – Captain Charity Peters

"The boys varsity cross country team showed tremendous improvement this season with two individuals qualifying for the regional meet – Adam Vittum, and Reid Nicholson. Reid Nicholson also qualified for the state meet where he was named to the all-state team. Adam Johnson finished third in the district on the JV level. The girls varsity team had an outstanding season, being runners-up in the district, and Region C champions. This is the first time in school history for the girls cross country team to win a regional championship. They had two girls named all-district, April Sexton and Shannon Gilmer. Shannon was also named all-region. The team also finished in the top eight in the state for the second year in a row. Amy Hodge was the undefeated runner for the JV girls team, and Anna Carpenter was the district runner-up for the JV team.

Coach Mark Hubbard records the results of the girls varsity cross country team after the state meet in Warrenton, Virginia.

CHAMPS!

This year's edition of Spartan Football returned to the winning ways of old, compiling a final mark of 10 wins and 3 losses. The Spartans combined a terrorizing defense and a potent ground game offense to run the opposition right into the ground. Led by captains Micah Steele, Jeffrey Dickerson, and Scott Moye, the Spartans lacked nothing in the leadership category. On offense, the Spartans looked to fullback Micah Steele and Sophomore Tailback Cooney Ratcliffe to gain yardage and put points on the board. The anchors of the defense were linebacker Jeffrey Dickerson and tackle Michael Stafford.

BUMP SET KILL

An Athlete's Prayer

It was right before the big one and the player said,
 "Excuse me guys for just a sec while I go bow my head."
 And in the quiet of that room
 The player prayed,
 "Oh God if nothing hear me now
 I know that fate is made."

"So help us Lord to win this game,
 It's the big one, man, you see,
 If we lose this game that's it for us,
 Please do this, Lord, for me."

And as his body knelt in prayer,
 He looked up to the sky,
 "And while I'm here, and have some time,
 I need to ask you why?"

"They say you never help teams win,
 Just do it once I pray,
 We will pay you back in kinder deeds
 Or in another way."

"The reason I can't help you win,"
 The Lord just then replied,
 "Is as you're asking me to win,
 So is the other side."

"I'm everybody's father and
 I must not take one side,
 So games are played all on your own
 Or they would all be tied."

"But that doesn't mean you shouldn't pray,"
 He answered him with care,
 "You can pray that players don't get hurt
 And that all the calls are fair."

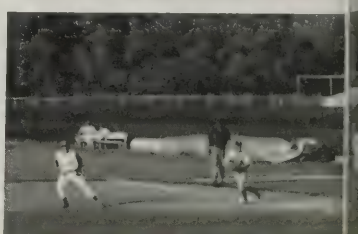

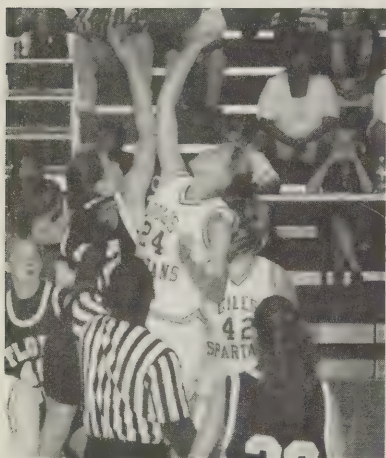

"And then I won't just watch the game,
 I'll bless it with my care,
 Because dear son you need to learn
 That life's not always fair."

And while the player heard this voice,
 He bowed his head in prayer,
 "I pray for fairness," said the boy
 "And for your tender care."

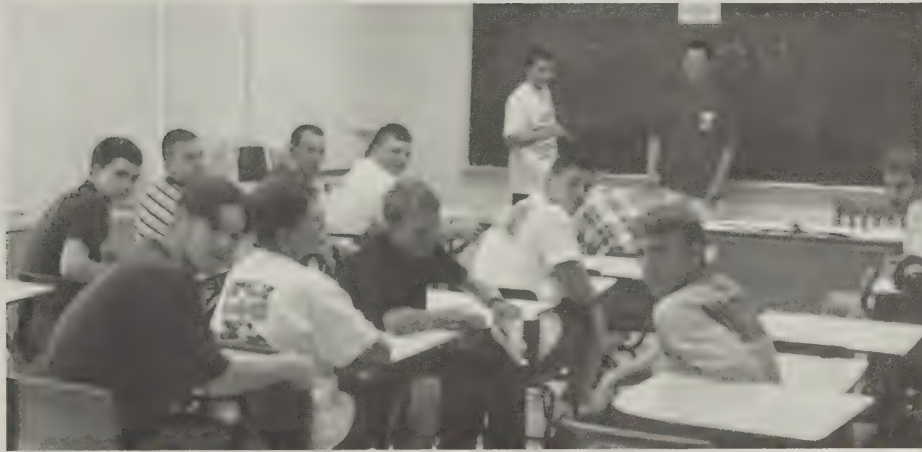

"You shall be blessed," the Lord replied,
 "Your team and you the same,
 And now will you excuse me boy,
 I cannot miss this game."
